Corporate Rate Sheet

The Chicago Manual of Style Online offers enterprise-wide, IP-based subscriptions as well as small user-group subscriptions to our corporate customers. Subscribers of both types receive online access to the full contents of the 16th and 15th editions of The Chicago Manual of Style.

We recommend that companies with 50 or fewer users consider a group subscription, which requires a group administrator to set up and maintain the account. Pricing is determined by the number of users. If you have more than 50 users, we recommend an enterprise subscription. See below for pricing options.
