WHOS BUSINESS IS THE CHICAGO MANUAL OF STYLE?

If your staff members work with words, then it’s your business. Following a universal style gets everyone on the same page.

Subscribers include hundreds of companies in publishing, technology, finance, the arts, education, manufacturing, government, retail, and more. From Microsoft, Boeing, Penguin Random House, and Condé Nast, to the Executive Office of the President, the CDC, and the FAA, these organizations all depend on “Chicago Style” for clear, concise communication.

WHY USE A STYLE GUIDE?

It’s professional. Having a single, definitive style reference ensures a consistent, professional look across websites, proposals, reports, public relations, and advertising. With a corporate subscription, every employee will have the same reliable answers to questions about grammar, style, and citation.

It’s efficient. Editors learn a “style” like Chicago’s so they don’t have to look things up repeatedly. Teams can independently make the same styling decisions on all your publications.

- Business proposals, reports, and memos
- Company website content
- Advertising and public relations copy
- Training and instructional brochures
- Books, articles, and annual meeting programs
- Grant proposals and donor appeals
